Professional, personable, quick-witted. Dear Désirée, thank you once again from the bottom of our hearts for your outstanding work at the "Partner Summit by schwarz digits" and the "Cloud X Summit by STACKIT"! You inspired the team and the audience on both days of the events. With your charming and open personality, you did a fantastic job helping to shape and guide the program.

A special thank you also for your spontaneity and for taking so much time for us in the run-up to the events.

Desiree Duray is the most professional moderator I have ever worked with. Our company ABB has worked with her on several events, and her stage presence is professional, authentic and charismatic. She engages naturally with everyone on stage and the audiences. What I like most about her moderation, is that she improvises naturally when needed and makes the entire event fun, bringing it to a next level. Her professionalism and attention to detail, to make the event perfect, starts with the first briefing call to the delivery of the event. During the preparation process, for her script, I was super impressed as she delivered, already with the first draft, exactly what the company expected - and indeed, exceeded our expectations. Her broad knowledge of topics, in particular for our industry, is outstanding. Desiree is fun to work together with, she brings in a lot of great ideas and goes beyond her mandate as a moderator. And also, gave us great ideas and inputs for the delivery of the overall event, to maximise the customer experience. I would warmly recommend her to anyone looking to deliver a professional, engaging and fun event.

- ABB, Global Head of Marketing Communications -

Desiree exceeded all expectations at our high-level event, which brought together around 100 top executives from the European chemical and energy industries. On stage, Desiree came across as knowledgeable, confident, charming, and consistent—someone who takes the time to delve into technical topics and asks the right questions at the right time.

Just as important—and likely unique—was the way Desiree supported us in the highly complex preparation of the event's content. Without her, we wouldn't have been able to create such a natural and seamless flow.

Desiree understood exactly what was important to us and incorporated this perfectly into the structure of our event.

On a personal level, too, working with her was incredibly pleasant and caring. In summary, Desiree was so much more than "just" a moderator—she was a major factor in the success of this important conference!

- Boston Consulting Group -

Dear Desiree, both your moderations as well as your media trainings are world-class — that's widely known. But on top of that I've also had the opportunity to experience you as a coach for CEOs and other C-Level executives in joint projects and was really impressed. Your skills were so valuable in preparation not only for major events but also for presentations at special occasions such as for example supervisory board meetings or generally for developing a personal brand. In no time you immerse yourself in both, the situation and the individual, and come up with pragmatic and fresh solutions that truly make a difference. As I have said many times: You can do magic!

- EgonZehnder -

What a spectacular show, dear Désirée! The content was profound and sooo warm and positive! Engaging, knowledgeable, and empathetic. Charming and professional. You gave the event just the right touch of glamour. Thank you for the magnificent, entertaining, and emotional hosting!

Désirée truly added value to our company's anniversary events in so many ways. With her help we were able to create a fantastic storyline to thrill our audience and make it an unforgettable event for them. Désirée is able to enchant the audience due to her lively, charming and energizing character and she has an impressive stage presence.

But, it was also amazing how she was managing and guiding her Co-Speakers through the show. She let them rise and shine during their stage-time, although they are not used to be in the limelight. Her performance on-stage and backstage is simply outstanding! Additionally - it's just fun to work with her! THANK YOU Désirée for your great contribution and this wonderful experience!
